

INDIAN SCHOOL SALALAH

(Circular No. ISS/DP/013/2020-21 Dated 20/05/2020)

Dear Parents

Greetings from Indian school Salalah!

We all are going through one of the most challenging times of the century and we all are fully determined to overcome this challenge and emerge as winners against the COVID 19 pandemic. As the Indian school Salalah community we are determined to continue with our teaching and learning journey during this unprecedented times and have been working continuously to ensure that the learning process of our kids do continue.

As you know, online classes from KG to Class XII are going in full swing. We also conduct weekly meeting with our parents along with class teachers and Section coordinators, to understand and get the correct feedback regarding the online classes.

Payment of School Fees: The parents will have the option to pay their child fee in monthly mode via bank transfers/ online modes already communicated to all. The entire schedule of fees is uploaded on the school website for easy reference with all details of how to remit the fees.

The School fee counter is opened in KG Block along with the distribution of Books from last one week and will be continued till 21/05/2020. Then, after the counter will be opened in the Administrative block wherein parents can pay the fees both outstanding as well as current Academic year fees, by maintaining social distance. (Parent will enter from the Main gate i.e. entrance from Indian Social Club).

- As you already know, ISS has already waived off the Nonacademic fees for the month of May to Aug , as per the latest directives from BoD. New fee chart for both Indians and Non-Indians for all the sections have been uploaded in the website as well as posted in Class groups.
- The parents from humble background shall be offered fee concessions for ONLY one child as given below for the academic year 2020-21, based on providing evidence for the same as per laid down procedure of the school. The concession is subject to the parent paying the monthly fees regularly.

Salary less than RO 200 per month	April to September	50% concession on tuition fees
Salary between RO 201 to Ro 250 per month	April to September	25% concession on tuition fees
Special cases to be taken up on case to case basis

The parents wishing to avail the fee discounts are requested to download the application form from the school website or collect the form from Principal office and submit the same with relevant supporting documents to the Principal office along with complete details of student with parent contact number. Till then, parents have to pay their regular monthly fees. Parents can visit the school office and are expected to follow social distancing and wear mask.

The school management committee, administration, teachers and staff of ISS are all committed to provide all possible support to the ISS family in this challenging situation and request the parent community to help the school by clearing all old dues as well as the current fees expeditiously. We are sure that we will overcome this current pandemic crisis very soon. Let's all come together and sincerely adhere to the advices and directives of the government and support its initiative for our own benefit.

The parents can communicate to their respective class teachers with regard to their queries.

Stay home and stay safe to break this COVID 19 chain.

Regards,

Deepal Patankar
Principal
