

Students of Osama Bin Zaid School visit Indian School Salalah

“With greater power comes greater responsibility” and truly Indian School Salalah is powerful as an educational institution in Dhofar province and thus it holds the responsibility to nurture and guide its students and at times other institutions too. It is for this reason the doors of Indian School Salalah are always kept open for anyone who strives to do better in the field of education and thus it is often visited by other schools of Salalah.

On 21st April 2016, Indian School Salalah witnessed yet another visit by 12 students from classes VI to IX and four teachers of Osama Bin Zaid School, Awqad, Salalah.

The students and teachers of Osama Bin Zaid School attended English Language classes of grades VI and VII. The students of Osama Bin Zaid School took part in the classroom activities and interacted with the Indian School students. The students ardently involved themselves in the learning progression and also took active part in the classroom activities and shared the practices of their school. The students of Indian School Salalah established a good affinity with them and prized the Omani students with loud applause for their correct responses in the classroom. Their active participation and eagerness to learn was observed by the teachers of Indian School Salalah who too interacted with the students and teachers of Osama Bin Zaid School.

The students and teachers of Osama Bin Zaid School were astounded with the cordiality they received at the school. The students were enthralled to see the colossal structure of the school. They enjoyed visiting classrooms, libraries, science laboratories and playground thoroughly.

In his interaction, Principal Mr. T.R. Brown appreciated the visit made by the students and teachers of Osama Bin Zaid School and said that such visits broaden the horizon of understanding of various traditions and cultures. He encouraged students to ask questions as he said, “The more you ask questions the more you learn.” The Omani students too expressed their thankfulness to Indian School Salalah and appreciated the discipline maintained by the students in the school.

The teachers and students of Osama Bin Zaid School were overwhelmed with their visit to Indian school Salalah and as token of love and gratitude they presented a memento to Principal Mr. T.R. Brown.

*****