

INDIAN SCHOOL SALALAH EXCELS IN CLASS X CBSE 2019 EXAMS WITH 100% RESULTS AND FIVE CENTUMS!

The results for class X CBSE board exams were declared today around 12 noon by CBSE, New Delhi and everyone was jubilant and excited at Indian School Salalah, when five of their students secured a perfect 100 (Miss Anjana Parvathy in Mathematics and Social Science, Miss Gouri Nandakumar in Social Science, Miss Priya Khatri in Hindi and Master Ajay Alex Johnson in Malayalam) and set new records. Moreover, everyone in the school is happy about the 100% results.

ANJANA PARVATHY ANGELA MARY JOHN GOURI NANDAKUMAR PRIYA KHATRI

The school has been very consistent in securing brilliant results and this year they have excelled with perfect scores and high percentages. Miss Anjana Parvathy topped with 489 marks (97.8 %) followed by Miss Angela Mary John and Miss Gouri Nandakumar with 484 marks (96.8%) and Miss Priya Khatri with 483 marks (96.6%). The concerted effort put in by the management, principal, staff and students helped the students to come out with flying colours with top scores and distinctions.

The highlights of the results are as follows:

52 students secured above 91%, 146 students got distinction i.e. above 75%, and on the whole 221 out of 235 secured first class i.e above 60%.

Subject toppers are: Miss Angela Mary John, Miss Aleena Anil Daniel and Miss Sowjanya Sri Praveen kumar in English (98 marks), Miss Priya Khatri in Hindi (100 marks), Master John Frederick Maan singh in French (97 marks), Master Yousseel Sayed Abdelsat in Arabic (98 marks), Master Ajay Alex Johnson in Malayalam (100 marks), Miss Anjana Parvathy in Maths (100 marks), Master Devansh Dinesh Wassista in Science (99 marks) and Miss Anjana Parvathy and Miss Gouri Nandakumar in Social Science (100 marks)

Congratulations

The students and the teachers are happy and proud for having accomplished a commendable result. The Acting President of the School Management Dr. Syed Ahsan Jamil, other members of the SMC and the Acting Principal Dr. S. Srinivasan, congratulated the students and the teachers for the excellent results.