

INDIAN SCHOOL SALALAH

(Circular Dated: 16/10/2018)

Gift a Book, Help the Needy and Save the Earth

Dear Parents and students,

Indian school Salalah is committed to instill environmental and social values, along with curricular education, in its students. Reusing old textbooks is a way to contain felling of trees. It is also a small step in the direction to reduce the spurt in carbon footprint.

Join hands with us in this drive and do your bit to save the Earth. Gift your used text books at the end of the academic year and be our partner in this mission.

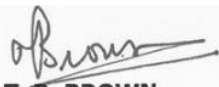

Who will be the beneficiaries of the scheme?

- All the students who pledge their interest to donate their used textbooks
- Surplus text-books, if any, will be donated to other Indian Schools

Kindly fill up the consent form given below to acknowledge your consent.

NB: The students who would like to avail the facility of used text-books may register their names with the class teacher.

Regards,

T. R. BROWN
Principal
