SECTION A – Reading

Q.1. Read the passage carefully.

1. There was a library located in a small town. It was filled with books of all kinds. Children loved to visit the library after school. Among them was a girl named Mia, who enjoyed reading. Every time she opened a book, she felt like she was entering a new world.

2. One day, Mia found an old book hidden in a corner. It was dusty and looked forgotten. She took it home and began to read curiously. The story was about a brave soldier who went on adventures to save his kingdom. Mia was delighted! She imagined herself as the brave soldier.

3. From that day on, Mia visited the library every week. She started discovering new stories and making friends with other young readers. She realised that reading not only entertained her but also helped her learn about different cultures and ideas.

Q.2. Read the poem carefully and tick the correct answers.

In a pond so clear and bright,
A little turtle, full of might,
With a shell so strong and round,
He swims with joy, without a sound.

He sees the fish swim here and there,
And watches frogs leap in the air.
Though small he is, he's brave and bold,
Exploring wonders, stories untold.

When danger comes, he hides away,
In his shell, he'll safely stay.
But when it's clear, he pops his head,
And greets the world with joy instead!
